1501 Eldridge Ave, Bellingham, WA

Unique Office Space with Gorgeous Bay Views

Beautiful views that overlook the Bellwether Hotel and Bellingham Bay. This building sits on top of the bluff, and is a unique office setting as the building was originally built in 1901. It's most recent use is as a law office.

- Ground Level entry is under a protected porch which opens into a large reception area, and includes a conference area with access directly to the kitchen. The ground level also includes an exterior deck, 2 offices, and restroom.
- 2nd Level includes 4 full offices with windows in each office, and a full bath
- Plenty of parking lines the property on Broadway, and the basement is great for dry storage
- Building grounds are professionally landscaped
